Project Title: United States Department of Agriculture Pesticide Laboratory
Location: Yakima, Washington
Estimated Cost: $200,000

Nature of Problem: Due to accumulated wastes from the pesticide storage/formulation/mixing buildings at the Central Washington U.S.D.A. Experimental Laboratory being disposed of into an on-site septic tank drain field, pesticides, including DDT, have permeated the soils, potentially contaminating the groundwater, used primarily for irrigation. In February of 1985, a closure plan for the site was sent to the Washington Department of Ecology for review. EPA will examine the situation and study the EPA recommendations of the Department of Ecology.

Project Title: Kaiser Aluminum
Location: Mead, Washington
Estimated Cost: $200,000
Duration: September 1985 - August 1986

Contact Person: Neil Thompson
U.S. EPA, MS 525
1200 Sixth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101
(206) 442-7177

Nature of Problem: In 1978, contamination of several wells in the city of Mead led to the discovery of cyanide in the groundwater. Kaiser Mead Works, identified as the source, provided an alternative water source to the 25 homes affected, implemented source controls on old potliner waste piles to prevent additional contamination, and established a groundwater monitoring system to document changes in cyanide levels in the groundwater. The project includes review of these remedial measures.

Project Title: Silver Mountain Mine
Location: Loomis, Washington
Estimated Cost: $200,000
Duration: September 1985 - August 1986

Contact Person: Lori Cohen
U.S. EPA, MS 525
1200 Sixth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101
(206) 442-2712

Nature of Problem: Due to the heap leaching process of ore extraction used in the past at this now abandoned mine site, about 2500 tons of cyanide-contaminated ore remains on the leach pad. The level and extent of contamination is unknown at this time, and will be investigated by the Environmental Protection Agency.
